DEBT VALIDATION LETTER

> BLANK TEMPLATE — NOT LEGAL ADVICE. This is a blank fill-in-the-blank form sold as a document product. It is not legal advice, it is not a substitute for a licensed attorney in your state, and using it does not create an attorney-client relationship with SurplusClaim AI. See the full disclaimer at the end before you fill anything in.

How to use this template

This is a blank form. Every square-bracketed item, like [YOUR FULL NAME], is a blank for you to complete. Nothing here is filled in for you, and nothing here is a recommendation.

- Fill in each bracketed blank, or remove the bracket and leave the line blank if the item does not apply to your situation.
- Some sections are marked [OPTIONAL]. If you do not want a section to be part of your letter, delete the whole section before you send it.
- Where a section lists choices, pick one and delete the other. Choices appear in two ways: inside a single bracket separated by "or", or as separate Option A and Option B blocks.
- This template is written as a letter to a debt collector. It contains fields for your information and the collector's information, a statement of dispute, and a request that the debt be verified.
- Read the finished letter from start to finish before you send it. Make sure every blank is either filled in or deliberately removed.
- Keep a copy of the letter you send.

Whether this template fits your situation, and whether the choices you make are right for you, is a question for you and, if you want help with it, a licensed attorney in your state.
